DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

3. Claims 1-2, 7-9, 12, 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over cited reference Endo Yoshinori (2001-100508a) in view of Hayashi. Yoshinori teaches performing a calculation on the developer remaining amount after warm-up (abstract). Yoshinori does not discuss a display means, which is normally conventional on an image forming device.

Art Unit: 2852

Hayashi teaches a display (figure 8). It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to use the teaching of Hayashi with the image forming device of Yoshinori since it teaches a conventional display means for a conventional image forming device.

Yoshinori does not teach the claimed toner. However, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to select the appropriate toner, since it has been held to be within the general skill of a worker in the art to select a known material on the basis of its suitability for the intended use as a matter of obvious design choice. In re Leshin, 125 USPQ 416.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 2-6, 10-11, 13-14, are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims. Claim 16 is allowed.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments with respect to the claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
